17. Card of Thanks

In remembrance of Willie W. Brown.

Oh, how we miss you since you went away.
The hurt still lingers,
as if it were yesterday.
A year has passed since you were home,
It's rough to walk the road alone.

We never realized the time was so near,
We'd have to give up one so
dear,
It's hard to understand — even harder to accept,
But when God makes a promise — it's always kept.

With your kind gentle hands
—patient smiling face,
All the beautiful memories will never erase.

Guess you'd want to know that - Little Ben has grown quite a lot,
Running around playing as any little tot, Asking questions about near and far,
And always speaking of his Grandpa.
Billy and Vernon come but that's seem so sad.
When they look around and don't see Dad.
And Little Bouncer just lies around,
Seems to be waiting for you to come.
To take her for walks and let her roam.
You visit me often in my dreams,
And oh, how natural it seems
I just reach out and touch you,
And hear you call my name.
But daddy, our home will never be the same.

When our life on earth comes to an end,
I pray, we'll all be together as a family again - Forever
Sadly missed by family

Zion Baptist news

I was glad when they said let us go into the house of the Lord. A large crowd of members and friends attended the regular preaching service held at the Zion Baptist Church Sunday at 11 a.m. with pastor Rev. Charles Lewis.

We were happy to have Rev. and Mrs. Lewis back from their vacation. Rev. Lewis preached a challenging message. All present enjoyed the great message. The Junior Choir rendered beautiful music.

The offering was very good. At the close of the morning service, the ladies of the church served a delicious turkey dinner with Mrs. Barbara Wesley chairman and the committee members, Mrs. Nannie Johnson, Mrs. Etta Edward and Mrs. Mattie Lawson.

Everyone enjoyed this delicious dinner at 3 p.m.

Rev. John Edwards preached for the male chorus. Deacon Junior Hays served as M.C. The Mt. Pleasant Young Adult Choir rendered beautiful music. Rev. Edward preached a wonderful sermon. The offering was taken by Mr. Andrew Mack and Deacon Frank Johnson, speaker plate, Mr. Lloyd Cobbs. Special remarks were made by Rev. Charles Lewis and Rev. H.O. Flood. Closing by Rev. Edwards. The Senior Usher will have their regular meeting Sunday at 11 a.m. There will be a special Thanksgiving service held at the Zion Baptist Church at 11 a.m. You are cordially invited to attend.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to our former pastor, Rev. L. E. Hankins and family in the loss of Mr. Harry Hankins, who died recently in Halifax, Va.

Also, sympathy goes out to Deacon Robert Jennings and family in the loss of his brother, Mr. Samuel Jennings whose funeral was held at the Chestnut Grove Church in Appomattox County. Services were held for Mr. Candis Brown of Bluefield, W. Va. Monday. Also, Mr. Luther Smith, formerly of Lynchburg, was buried in Washington, D.C. Mr. Brown was the cousin of Mrs. Magarili Franklin. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the family and our prayers and thoughts are with them. We are praying for our sick and shut in.

St. Luke news

We are happy to relate that our pastor, Rev. J. E. Mclaughlin is doing real well after treatment is the hospital at his home town but because of that he did not come to the regular preaching services at the St. Luke Baptist Church. The Rev. Peddy was in charge for him and taught the Sunday school adult class, which was very informative.

Rev. Peddy used text Acts 9th chapter, subject, prayer, Lord Teach Us To Pray, This was well explained ed the speaker. The offering was taken by Deacons S. R. Marshall, W. R. Jones and Mrs. M. Scott. Presentation from the church, Deacon S. W. Marshall, presentations from all other auxiliaries, Mrs. Cathrine Tweedy.

Rev. McLaughlin was present and gave remarks of gratitude. A Mr. Goey from Memorial Baptist Church Halifax, made a presentation from their church of which Rev. McLaughlin is their newly elected pastor. This was a great event and was enjoyed by all. A repass was served in the dining area of the church.

On the third Sunday in October Mrs. Louise Canada and Mrs. Anna Canada and
